

Trinity Drama qualifications:

New from September 2023 - updated specifications for Trinity's face-to-face and digital Drama grades and diplomas

The syllabus specifications for our grades and diplomas have been improved and updated for the following subjects and are now available to download on our website:

- Acting
- Musical Theatre
- Performance Arts
- Speech and Drama
- ATCL Performing and Communication Skills

Visit our website to find out more @ bit.ly/DramaNewSpecs_092023

Having listened to feedback from our customers, we are streamlining the experience for teachers and candidates.

The requirements for face-to-face and digital exams have been combined into a single reference document for each subject, and we have redesigned the Key Skills tasks.

The new syllabus specifications are now available to download and MUST BE USED FOR EXAMS FROM September 2023. The syllabus from 2020 will no longer be valid after this date.

Visit our website [QR code above] for further information about all of the changes we're making, including:

- The 2023 syllabus specifications
- Further information from our Director of Performance on what's changing and why
- The key changes in each syllabus at each grade
- New support videos designed for the updated tasks
- Approved lists of pieces for the Expressive Reading tasks in Speech and Drama exams

N.B. – there are NO changes to the communications skills syllabus.
